

Huntington Exploration Changes Name to Angel Wing Metals Inc.

CALGARY, AB, May 17, 2022 /CNW/ - Huntington Exploration Inc. (TSXV: HEI) ("Huntington" or the "Company") announced today that it has changed its name to Angel Wing Metals Inc. ("Angel Wing" or "Angel Wing Metals").

Effective at market open on May 19, 2022, the Company's common shares ("Shares") will be trading on the TSXV under the name Angel Wing Metals Inc., and its new trading symbol "AWM".

The name "Angel Wing Metals" is inspired by the bladed wing-shaped amethyst crystals present in the Angel Wing prospect, one of the five (5) priority targets identified at the recently acquired El Grande Project located in the southern extension of the Sierra Madre Occidental gold-silver belt in the state of Nayarit, Mexico. The acquisition of the El Grande Project represents a unique opportunity for the Company to be the first mover in a potential district scale gold-silver system as the project already contains widespread evidence of gold mineralization with no history of modern exploration to date and adds significant exploration potential to its strong portfolio of precious metals assets.

The name change does not affect the Company's share structure or the rights of the Company's shareholders, and no further action is required by existing shareholders. On May 19, 2022, HEI Shares that have been deposited in CDS for trading will be automatically converted to Angel Wing Shares and be traded under the symbol AWM. The new CUSIP number for the Company's common shares is 03464G107.

After market open on May 19, 2022, Registered holders of non-deposited HEI Shares, that are physical share certificates and DRS statements that have not been deposited in CDS through a broker, are required to contact Alliance Trust Company to exchange for a DRS statement with the new name of Angel Wing Metals Inc. prior to transferring or depositing.
